Professor Rev. J. A. Zahm, who, it will be remmembered, visited this country a year or so ago, wrote a series of articles on the Hawaiian Islands for "The Rocky Mountain News." These articles, which contain very interesting reading, have now been published in book form.

To-morrow at 10 o'clock A. M., the furniture belonging to the Rev. J. A. Cruzan will be brought to the hammer by Mr. Morgan, spokesman for E. P. Adams & Co. In addition to a full line of household requisites, a sweet toned piano will be sold, also a full set of the new American Encyclopedia, bound in half Russia.

At about 6:30 o'clock every evening Mr. Frank Higgins has a circus in his tent on Fort street. A Russian dog, with a Hawaiian flag in his mouth, runs around the ring as fast as he can, while a parrot, perched on the judge's stand, counts the laps and keeps the time with the dignity of a judge.

It is publicly advertised that the Chamberlain's office "will be open for business on Fridays only, between 12 o'clock noon and 2 p. m." Guided by this notice, over a dozen persons waited at that office to-day, during the time specified, but no business could be done, because there was no one there with whom to transact it.

THE King has appointed J. Hamauku, as Captain, and Thomas Nathaniel, First Lieutenant, of the household troops. The former has been for three years studing for the ministry in the North Pacific Missionary Institute, and declined three times to take any such appointment, which finally was made without any previous inquiry. Thomas Nathaniel was formerly an assistant clerk of the Supreme Court.

Although the Russian Government has treated Sir West Ridgeway, Chief of the British Commission of the Afghanistan Frontier Dispute, with the utmost courtesy since his arrival it refuses to abate any of its arrival it refuses to abate

BLUE RIBBON LEAGUE.

The usual pleasing programme of the League will be given at the Y. M. C. A. Hall to-morrow evening. As this will be the last opportunity to meet Mr. Cruzan at these interesting meetings, it is hoped there will be a good house.

NOT FOR OSTENTATION.

A gentleman whose modesty makes him unwilling to have his name announced publicly, has presented the Library Association with about fifty volumes, including a set of Bulwer's works in thirty seven volumes.

A RARE TREAT.

Those who wish to see some of the beautiful scenes incident to travel in Europe without the expense or trouble of the trip, should be sure to attend Mr. Dickinson's illus. trated lecture in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, at 7:30 this evening. It costs only seventy-five cents, to thus visit "Sunny Italy."

ANOTHER LECTURE FOR CHILDREN.

A second and last talk to the children will be given by Mr. Dickinson at the Y. M. C. A. Hall tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Five illustrations of Florence, Pisa, Rome Venice and other cities will be shown, as well as some fine pictures and statues. Twenty five cents will admit all who attend this lecture. older people as well as well as young folks.

AN ACCIDENT.

This afternoon about half-past 1 o'clock, an accident occurred at the corner of King and Alakea streets, by which a Portuguese named Philip Emanuel got severely hurt. He was engaged with a gang of men erecting electric light posts. On raising one of them, the shears canted over and the pole fell, striking the victim on the side of the head. After being examined by Drs. McWayne, Gray and McGrew, he was removed in a hack to the Queen's Hospital.

THE COMING SHOW.

The Amateur Minstrels are making extra efforts to produce a show of the highest quality next Saturday night, and there is no doubt of their success. "Our Navy" will be reproduced with improvements. The occasion will be a benefit to Mr. W. G. Armstrong, who has been from the first organisation of the company, one of its main pillars. The box plan opened at Messrs. J. E. Brown & Co.'s office at 9 o'clock this morning, and by 3 this afternoon nearly every seat was taken.

ROYAL PRESENTS.

Mr. A. Rosenburg, the Custom House Appraiser, received a present of a silver cup and a gold medal, on the first instant. The cup bears the inscription "His Majesty Kalais similarly inscribed, with the King's features on the reverse side, ribbon.

MR. W. H. POQUE HURT.

A letter from Mr. J. H. Maby to Wilder's S. S. Co. dated May 30th, states that Mr. W. F. Pogue, while riding up the Volcano road, with a a painful accident. The load was about to topple over when Mr. Pogue jumped. He lost his balance and fell on the stump of a small tree. The stump which was about an inch and a half in diameter, and about three feet above ground, penetrated the left side of the rectum and entered the intestine about six inches above the orifice. The wound is not necessarily fatal, and by the lattest accounts the patient was doing well.

THE CO-AS-YOU-PLEASE RACE.

A few minutes after 7 o'clock last evening, Harry Smith and Joe Camara started on the go-as-youplease race. A Japanese and Jacob Simms were to have gone in, but withdrew at the last moment. Smith and Camara started off on a jog-trot, and at the expiration of the four hours Camara had traveled 25 miles and 20 laps and Smith 25 miles and 10 laps, 21 laps making a mile. The attendance was fair, and as the competitors are well matched, the race will become more interesting as it continues. On a black-board, in full view of the audience, each lap was registered. The Portuguese band played throughout the evening. keeping the runners as well as spectators in good humor. The race will be resumed at 7 o'clock this evening.

HAWAIIAN OPERA HOUSE.

PERFORMANCE BY THE AMATEUR MINSTRELS.

At the second performance of the third series of the Honolulu Amateur Minstrels, last night, the Opera House was comfortably filled.

A new feature of the evening's entertainment, was the addition of three musicians to the orchestra, from the steamship Australia. In fact, most of the orchestral work was executed by them, with the assistance of Mr. Myron Jones on the piano. The three instruments they played were violin, flute, and harp. The harmony of sweet sounds produced was charming. The time bemusic, and its acceptability to the audience was evidenced by frequent applause.

The performance on the whole was good, but not up to the established standard of the Minstrels. It was a kind of off night with them.

Some of the solos in the first half of the programme were nicely sung. The choruses were all very good. The "Old Folks Concert," by Harry Von Holt and E. F. Bishop, was the same as given at the previous performance, with a little finish added, which made it better than before.

The concluding part of the programme consisted of a half dozen tableaux, which were mostly a burlesque of those exhibited a few weeks ago in the entertainments given in aid of the British Benevolent Society, "Looking over the palace wall," seemed to suit the audience better than the others, on account of its local character. The machinery of the drop curtam was out of order and did not work satisfactorily, which helped to detract FIRE, from the success of the exhibition.

A VALUABLE RECOGNITION.

A Gold Waltham watch bearing the following inscription and accompanied by the following address was presented to Mr. Gideon West yes-

"Presented by the Hawaiian Carriage Manufacturing Company to Gideon West, Esq., as a mark of esteem, Honolulu." June 1887.

GIDEON WEST Esq., President of the Hawaiian Carriage Manufactur-ing Company—Sir: We the undersigned Stockholders, Directors and Employees of the Hawaiian Carriage Manufacturing Company, desire your acceptance of the accompanying watch, which we tender you as a small token of our esteem to you as a gentleman and also as a remembrance of our very friendly and appreciative feelings towards you as our late Manager.

We shall treasure and remember our associations in the past, and hope always to be held in pleasureable remembrance by you.

W. W. Wright, James G. Spen-cer, W. O. Smith, Chas. T. Gulick, W. E. Foster, A. L. Smith, B. F. Dillingham, W. Buchanan, J. N. Wright, Ed. Lycan, E. C. Schuman, John F. Smith, Ed. Langley, T. B. Murray, Gus Schuman, James Dechatzy, G. D. Young, Ben Daiger, Thos. Wright, J. E. Car-roll, John M. Angus, James Kin-ney, A. Bannister, H. M. Dow.

The following reply was handed to the donors by Mr. West:-GENTLEMEN: —I am in receipt of your kind letter and the very elegant watch which you so kindly have given me. Permit me to offer my heartfelt thanks to you, and rest assured that, wherever fortune may cast my lot, I shall never cease to remember the pleasant associations of the past few years and the many kind attentions I have received at your hands.

Thanking you again for this beautiful token of regard and your very generous thoughts of approval expressed in your testimonial, I remain Gentlemen

Your Friend, GIDEON WEST.

THE REV FATHER O'LEARY.

Rev. Father O'Leary, a wellknown Catholic priest in his day, and John Philpot Curran, the renowned Irish orator, met at dinner one day at the house of the actor, Michael Kelly. They were warm friends, and, as may be easily imagined, O'Leary vs. Curran was no bad match. After dinner Curran said to him: "Rev. Father, I wish you were Saint Peter." "And why, Counsellor, would you wish that I were St. Peter?" asked O'Leary. "Because, Rev. Father, in that
